Dear: _____

Check number _____, issued by you on _____ bank, for which you received goods and/or services, for the amount of $ _____, has been returned for stop payment.

Stopping payment on a check with intent to defraud is in violation of Florida Law, and the maker of the check can be subjected to criminal charges.

Unless your check is paid in full within ten (10) days from the receipt of this notice, this matter will be turned over to the St. Lucie County Sheriff's Office for determination as to whether this matter meets the criteria for criminal prosecution.

Sincerely,
